

CENTER FOR LEADERSHIP

The AUSA Center for Leadership delivers relevant and inspirational programs that develop leaders of character and cohesive teams across the Total Army.

Young Professionals

The AUSA Young Professionals Program is a national initiative to inspire the next generation of leaders within AUSA communities and the Total Army by providing networking opportunities, mentorship, and professional development programs.

Leadership Fellows

Our leadership experts educate, inspire, and connect with AUSA Members, Soldiers, and Cadets during speaking engagements, small group workshops, and more, focused solely on leadership lessons. Request a Leadership Fellow for your next event, FOR FREE!

Events

We develop, plan and execute leadership events for myriad audiences which include the Total Army, ROTC Programs and 122 AUSA Chapters.

FOCUS AREAS

ABOUT US

General (Retired) Bob Brown, AUSA's President and CEO, established the Center for Leadership on October 1st, 2021 to help develop leaders of character and cohesive teams across the Total Army. The Center for Leadership facilitates myriad forums and platforms to share leader development ideas and best practices in large forums (LANPAC in May and the AUSA Annual Meeting in October), smaller forums (tailored to local Army units and ROTC programs), and through the "On Leadership" section of Army Magazine.

OUR PURPOSE

- ✔ Educate, inspire, and connect leaders at the brigade level and below through leadership forums that strengthen the Army Profession.

EVENTS

Leader Solarium at the AUSA Annual Meeting

This forum provides an opportunity for specially selected leaders to give thoughtful, bottom-up feedback and recommendations to the Army Senior Leadership on opportunities and challenges facing the Total Army.

“Inspiration to Lead” Exercise

Army Veterans share inspirational leadership lessons at impactful historical sites. Previous locations include the National Mall in Washington D.C., the National Museum of the United States Army and the National Memorial Cemetery of the Pacific in Hawaii.

LANPAC Leadership Forum

The LANPAC Leadership Forum professionally develops and inspires Total Army Soldiers, allies, and partners from across the Indo-Pacific.

Young Professionals Forum

This forum held at the AUSA Annual Meeting and Global Force educates young professionals and connects them with AUSA, industry partners and Total Army leaders. Participants leave inspired as AUSA’s future leaders.
